

Jean Brillant joins Groupe Molior's board of directors

Groupe Molior is delighted to welcome Jean Brillant, artist sculptor, to its board of directors.

Following his studies at the school for fine arts in Aix-en-Provence (1978/79), the national fine arts school in Dijon (1979/81), Jean Brillant obtained his Bachelor's degree in visual arts at the Université du Québec in 1984. His work has been shown in Canada, France, Belgium and Spain. His sculptures have been acquired by numerous collections, including Lavalin Inc., the McDonalds collection, the Musée du Québec and the Demilius S.A. collection in Zurich. From 1993 to 1994, Brillant sat on the board of directors of the 3rd Imperial.
